Where the Good Life is a Way of Life

Begin the Good Life...

Nestled amid a canopy of pines, oaks, and maples—surrounding a spectacular 18-hole Arnold Palmer Signature Golf Course with emerald-green fairways—is a place where dreams of the good life become reality. Live in Brier Creek Country Club, and you live in a place where grace and elegance are part of everyday life and where golf course vistas, meandering streams, and tranquility define daily existence.

...at Brier Creek Country Club

Convenience

Adjacent to Research Triangle Park, Brier Creek Country Club is a private haven in a luxurious country club setting. This community is located in one of America's most vibrant areas, a region that has the distinction of being named the nation's top area for business by Fortune magazine, the number one place to live by Money magazine—and also the number one spot in the country to retire by Consumers Guide.

Raleigh, Cary, Durham, and Chapel Hill are just minutes away. So is Duke University, with its picture-perfect campus and diverse cultural and recreational activities. A short two-hour drive away are the sparkling beaches and majestic mountains that make the Raleigh area so desirable for those who celebrate nature in all her glory.

Education

Schools in the region are hailed as among the best in the nation. From primary to post-secondary, the Wake County Public School System, with its nationally recognized schools, reflects the community's strong commitment to education and its dedication to continued growth and development. Numerous extracurricular clubs offer students the opportunity to participate in the arts and sciences and cultural activities. Gifted programs are available at all grade levels and college advanced placement courses are offered at the high school level. Brier Creek Elementary School is located adjacent to Brier Creek Country Club.

Recently, Wake County boasted the largest group of college scholarship winners from any one school district in the US for not one, but two prestigious awards—five high school seniors were named Park Scholars and three were named Morehead Scholars. Honorees demonstrated not only academic achievement, but also integrity, leadership, and commitment to their communities.

The Wake County Public School System also includes top-ranked magnet schools, which offer innovative instructional programs that promote equity, diversity, and academic excellence. In Wake County recently, ten magnet schools were recognized as being among the best in the nation by Magnet Schools of America, a national association of magnet school educators.

Culture and Recreation

The Wake County area and the City of Raleigh, North Carolina's state capital and home to the annual State Fair, offer an unmatched combination of history, art, culture, and entertainment.

Discover art and history at the North Carolina Museums of Art, History, and Natural History, or enjoy a theatrical presentation at a variety of venues. Downtown, the Progress Energy Center for the Performing Arts—comprising the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, Fletcher Opera Theater, Meymandi Concert Hall (home of the North Carolina Symphony), and Kennedy Theater—features music, dance, comedy, and Broadway touring productions. For more intimate plays and presentations, experience the ideal setting at the Raleigh Little Theatre. During the summer, delight in an outdoor show or concert under the stars at the Alltel Pavilion at Walnut Creek or the Koka Booth Amphitheater at Regency Park in Cary. For fine dining, excellent restaurants and country inns abound in the Triangle area, including the Fearington House and Country Inn—the only establishment in North Carolina to receive both the AAA's Five Diamond Award and Exxon Mobil's Five Star Award.

Sports fans can cheer for professional sports teams, including the NFL's Carolina Panthers and the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes, and for college sports teams from the three major universities in The Triangle: Duke University, North Carolina State University, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Shopping

Brier Creek Country Club is close to intriguing opportunities for shopping, from quaint antique and specialty shops to modern malls. Brier Creek Commons, a new 800,000-square-foot shopping plaza next to Brier Creek Country Club, is ideal for convenient one-stop shopping. In the charming towns of Cary, Chapel Hill, and Hillsborough, you will discover unique stores that pride themselves in providing personalized service from shopkeepers who remember you by name. Two new major malls are within a 15-minute drive of Brier Creek Country Club. The fabulous Streets at Southpoint and Main Street mall in Durham features anchor stores such as Nordstrom and Hudson Belk, along with nearly 180 popular stores and restaurants. At the unique Triangle Town Center, part outdoor village and part indoor shopping mall, you can visit Saks Fifth Avenue, Hecht's, and Dillard's, and over 170 fine specialty shops and restaurants.
