Profile

Belmont Country Club is a place where grace and elegance are part of everyday life, where golf course vistas and tranquility define daily existence. Point to Point races have been held here for over 200 years, and today, the property is home to the Belmont Steeplechase and The Fairfax Hunt. Twice a year, the sounds of horns will continue to be heard, as this important tradition will live on at Belmont Country Club.

The Belmont Country Club experience begins at the prestigious gated entry and winds past the picturesque tenth green into the heart of the community. Belmont's Manor House, located on the highest point in the area, was once part of the vast land holdings of Lord Fairfax. The Manor home, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was built in the 1790's by Ludwell Lee, nephew of Richard Henry Lee, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. The Marquis de Lafayette befriended Ludwell Lee during the Revolution, and it is said, presented Ludwell with the fireplace mantels that are still in the Manor. Belmont was the home of Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley; and later of Evelyn McLean, former owner of the Hope Diamond. Belmont is truly steeped in history. Now, this historic landmark is being restored in all its glory.

The Belmont Clubhouse will be the true center of the social life of the community. Membership opens up a world of opportunities for everything from fun gatherings with new friends to formal celebrations. Here, you can take in a casual meal with friends and neighbors after a challenging round of golf, an invigorating game of tennis, or a relaxing swim, all while viewing the manicured fairways.

Members of Belmont Country Club will also enjoy a separate Swim and Tennis Center and a full service Recreation Center. You can swim in the 25 meter competition pool, while your children play in the children's pool. For a little friendly competition, there are tennis, multipurpose, and basketball courts; and a volleyball pit. To stay in shape year-round, there are indoor aerobic and fitness facilities available.
