Toll Brothers at Saddle Creek

Upper Mt. Bethel Township is a rural community located in the northeast corner of Northampton County. Residential homes and farmlands dot the countryside and the Village of Mt. Bethel forms the residential, cultural, and economic heart of the Township. There are also other smaller villages located throughout the Township but the rural character of the area remains the predominant and valued feature for most of the residents.

The eastern and southern boundaries of the Township are bordered entirely by the Delaware River. The northern boundary of the Township is bounded by Monroe County and the Kittatinny Mountain Range, including the lands of the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area. The Appalachian Trail also runs along the northern boundary of the township. The western boundary of the Township is bordered by Washington and Lower Mount Bethel Townships and by the Borough of East Bangor.

Significant natural features in the Township include outstanding geologic features, critical wildlife habitats, rare plant communities and threatened or endangered species. Some historical sites and buildings in the Township include the Slate Belt Museum and the Slateford Farm.

Toll Brothers at Saddle Creek is beautifully situated on a hillside with scenic vistas and a private country setting. As a resident of Toll Brothers at Saddle Creek, you will enjoy the beauty and conveniences that Northampton County has to offer.
